Principal Pipings

Many many years ago when Bach's Orgelbüchlein was new to me I happily practiced In dir ist Freude diligently for months. At the time I doubt that I took the time to even read the words of the chorale; I just knew it was intended for New Year's. But now I can imagine how these powerful words must have inspired Bach:

*In you is gladness amid all sadness,
Jesus, sunshine of my heart.
By you are given the gifts of heaven,
you the true Redeemer are.
Our souls are waking, our bonds are breaking;
who trusts you surely has built securely and stands forever. Alleluia!
Our hearts are pining to see your shining, dying or living to you are clinging now and forever. Alleluia!*

*If he is ours, we fear no powers,
not of earth or sin or death.
He sees and blesses in worst distresses;
he can change them with a breath.
Wherefore the story tell of his glory with heart and voices; all heav'n rejoices in him forever. Alleluia!
We shout for gladness, win over sadness,
love him and praise him and still shall raise him glad hymns forever. Alleluia!*

Happy New Year! - Nancy

UPCOMING AGO EVENTS

GUESTS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME AT AGO EVENTS

Saturday, February 14, 2026,

12:00 noon: Lunch and Masterclass with Huw Lewis, Christ Church Cathedral,
Lexington

If you plan to attend the lunch, please sign up by February 9: Text or call and leave a message (please include your name) to Nancy Dunn at 859-333-0526, or respond to this email.

The cost of the lunch will be $5.00;
bring cash or check with you that day.

The Masterclass will be from 1:00 to 2:15 p.m. and will focus on Romantic music.

Huw Lewis was born into a musical family in Wales and received formal training with John Birch and Ralph Downes at the Royal College of Music in London and at Cambridge University. In 1972, he came to the United States to study organ at the University of Michigan, earning master's and doctoral degrees in organ performance. His teachers there were Robert Clark, Robert Glasgow, and Marilyn Mason. He also studied privately with Catharine Crozier.

Huw Lewis' early career was marked with distinction: he received the teaching and performing diplomas from the Royal Academy and the Royal College of Music as well as top prizes for both diplomas of the Royal College of Organists while yet a teenager; he received scholarships and fellowships at Cambridge University and the University of Michigan and won First Prize at the National Organ Competition in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Subsequently, his extensive performing career has taken him across the United States, and throughout Britain, Europe, and Russia. He has performed at numerous national and regional conventions of many professional organizations, including the Hymn Society of America, the Organ Historical Society, the International Congress of Organists, and the American Guild of Organists.

Dr. Lewis has judged at many competitions, including the 2003 Dallas International Organ Competition and the 2016 Sursa American Organ Competition at Ball State University. His playing has been broadcast over the radio in Europe and in Britain for the BBC, and on radio and television in the U.S. Huw Lewis has appeared as a soloist numerous times with orchestra – most recently with the Holland Symphony Orchestra. He has participated in the world premieres of concertos by Alfred Fedak and Michael Daugherty. His May 2016 performance of the Fedak concerto was part of the series of performances to inaugurate the new Casavant organ at the Jack H. Miller Center for Musical Arts. Since 1990 Dr. Lewis has served as Professor of Organ and College Organist at Hope College, Holland, Michigan. He is also Director of Music at St. John's Episcopal Church, Detroit.

Huw Lewis is represented in North America exclusively by Phillip Truckenbrod Concert Artists, L.L.C.

Sunday, February 15, 2026, 4:00 p.m: Huw Lewis concert, Christ Church Cathedral, Lexington

Here are sample reviews of Lewis's playing:

“A stunning recital that can only be described as breathtaking!...the kind of transcendent performance one always hopes for, but only gets to experience once or twice in a lifetime—if that!” (Alfred Fedak, Westminster Presbyterian Church, Albany, NY)

“Dr. Lewis played with great authority, but also with an elegance and sensitivity to style, room, and instrument, and received the first standing ovation of the [AGO] convention.” (The American Organist)
