

FIRST ANNUAL

Community Lenten Recital Series

Every Sunday in Lent

All Recitals FREE to the Danville Community

Sunday, February 22nd, 3:00 PM. First Christian Church

Owen Sammons, organist at Calvary Episcopal Church, Louisville, has toured Europe, playing La Madeleine, the American Cathedral, St. Paul's Within the Walls, Tours, Mont Saint Michel, and Chartres. Owen is a frequent soloist with The Bellarmine University Oratorio Society and The Louisville Chorus.

Sunday, March 1st, 3:00 PM Trinity Episcopal Church

Zach Klobnak, Assistant Professor of Music at Centre College. His program will include music by Fanny Mendelssohn, J. S. Bach, Angela Craft Cross, Daniel Pinkham, and Emma Lou Diemer.

Sunday, March 8th, 3:00 PM Presbyterian Church of Danville

Schuyler Robinson, DMA, Professor Emeritus, Organ / Harpsichord, University of Kentucky, former Assistant Organist at Christ Church Cathedral in Lexington. Schuyler has performed in 22 states. European solo work has included Australia, Tasmania, England, Scotland, Germany, and France.

Sunday, March 15th, 3:00 PM Presbyterian Church of Danville

Lisa Hall, Associate Cathedral Organist, Christ Church Cathedral, Lexington and Jana Flygstad, award-winning flutist, educator, and recording artist, Central Kentucky will be presenting music composed for organ and flute.

Sunday, March 22nd, 3:00 PM First Christian Church

Bellarmino University Schola cantorum, conducted by S. Timothy Glasscock, with special guest Owen Sammons, University Organist, presenting solo organ literature, solo vocal literature, and Dr. Glasscock's newly composed penitential Te Deum